We Bombed in New Haven - Wikipedia

WE BOMBED IN NEW HAVEN is much in the standard mode Heller worked in: Comedy worthy of the best stand-ups of the mid-century, mixed with a realism worthy of Norman Mailer. Joseph Heller is almost alone in writers of Second World War generation in being able to switch from laughter to horror without awkwardness.

We Bombed in New Haven by Joseph Heller - Goodreads

"We Bombed in New Haven" is a truly unique play, obscuring the line between acting and reality. It is full of Heller's enigmatic wit and laugh-out-loud humor. While some references may seem out of date (such as some songs that the soldiers sing), the themes and the questions raised are ever present in today's world.
